

When as we at in Babylon

Psalm 137

Thomas Ravenscroft (c.1592-c.1635)

Medius (part 2 of 4)

When as we sat in Ba - by - lon, the ri - vers round a -
Then they to whom we priso - ners were said to us taun - ting -
But yet if I Je - ru - sa - lem out of my heart be bout, and in re - mem - brance of Si - on, the tears for grief burst out.

ly: Now let us hear your He - brew songs, and plea - sant me - lo - dy.
slide, then let my fin - gers quite for - get the war - bling harp to guide;

We hang'd our harps and in - stru - ments the wil - low trees u - pon. For A - las said we who can once frame his sorrow - ful heart to sing the
And let my tongue wi - thin my mouth be tide for e - ver - last, if in that place men for their use had plant - ed ma - ny one.

prai - ses of our li - ving God thus un - der a strange king?
that I joy be - fore I see thy full de - li - v'rance past.
