

Author of Light

Thomas Campion (1567-1620)

Two Bookes of Ayres (c.1613)

Cantus (part 1 of 4)

Au - thor of light re - vive my dy - ing spright, Re - deeme it from the snares of all con - found - ing night. Lord, light me to thy bless - ed way: For blinde, for blinde with world - ly vaine de - sires, I wan - der as a stray: Sunne and Moone, Starres and un - der - lights I see. But all their glor -

- ious beames are mists and dark - nesse being com - par'd to thee.

Author of Light

Thomas Campion (1567-1620)

Two Bookes of Ayres (c.1613)

Altus (part 2 of 4)

8 Au - thor of light re - vive my dy - ing spright, Re - deeme it from the

5 8 snares, re - deeme it from the snares of all con - found - ing night. Lord, light mee

10 8 to thy bless - ed way: For blinde, for blinde with world - ly vaine de - lights, I

15 8 wan - der as a stray, Sunne and Moone, Starres and un - der - lights I see: But

20 8 all their glor - ious beames are mists com - par'd with thee.

Author of Light

Thomas Campion (1567-1620)

Two Bookes of Ayres (c.1613)

Altus (part 2 of 4)

Au - thor of light re - vive my dy - ing spright, Re - deeme it from the 5

snares, re - deeme it from the snares of all con - found - ing night. Lord, light mee

10
to thy bless - ed way: For blinde, for blinde with world - ly vaine de - lights, I

15
wan - der as a stray, Sunne and Moone, Starres and un - der - lights I see: But 20

all their glor - ious beames are mists com - par'd with thee.

Author of Light

Thomas Campion (1567-1620)

Two Bookes of Ayres (c.1613)

Tenor (part 3 of 4)

8 Au - thor of light re - vive my dy - ing spright, Re - deeme it from the

5 snares, re - deeme it from the snares of all con - found - ing night. Lord, light me —

10 — to thy bless - ed way: For blinde with world - ly vaine de - sires I wan - der,

15 wan - der as a stray. Sunne and Moone, Starres and un - der lights I see: But all, all their

20 glor - ious beames are mists and dark - nesse being com - par'd to thee.

Author of Light

Thomas Campion (1567-1620)

Two Bookes of Ayres (c.1613)

Tenor (part 3 of 4)

Au - thor of light re - vive my dy - ing spright, Re - deeme it from the 5

snares, re - deeme it from the snares of all con - found - ing night. Lord, light me

10
___ to thy bless - ed way: For blinde with world - ly vaine de - sires I wan - der,

15
wan - der as a stray. Sunne and Moone, Starres and un - der lights I see: But all, all their 20

glor - ious beames are mists and dark - nesse being com - par'd to thee.

Author of Light

Thomas Campion (1567-1620)

Two Bookes of Ayres (c.1613)

Bassus (part 4 of 4)

Au - thor of light, of light, re - vive my dy - ing spright, Re - deeme it from the snares of all con - found - ing night, con - found - ing night. Lord, light me to thy bless - ed way: For blinde, for blinde with world - ly vain de - sires I

5

10

15
wan - der as a stray. Sunne and Moone, Starres and un - der - lights I see: But all their 20

glor - ious beames are mists and dark - nesse be - ing com - - par'd to thee.