

Why fumeth in sight

The third tune

Archbishop Matthew Parker (1504-1575), Psalm 2

Thomas Tallis (c.1505-1585)

Tenor (part 3 of 4)

The Whole Psalter translated into English meter (John Daye press, London, 1567)

8 Why fum'th in sight the Gen-tiles spite, in fu - ry ra - ging us they say, break down their ray of all their bonds and Lord in fear your ser - vice bear, with dread to him re -

5
8 stout? Why tak'th in hand the peo-ple fond, vain things to bring a - bout? The cords; we will re - nounce that they pro-nounce, their lores as state-ly lords. But joice; let ra - ges be, re - sist not ye, him serve with joy - ful voice. The kings a - rise, the lords de - vise in coun - cils met there - to; a - God of Might in Heav'n so bright shall laugh them all to scorn; the Son kiss ye lest wroth he be, lose not the way of rest; for 8

8
15

20
3
1-2. 3.
gainst the Lord, with false ac - cord, a-gainst his Christ they go. Let Lord on high shall them de - fy, they shall be once for - lorn. The when his ire is set on fire, who trust in him be blest.