

Death hath deprived me

A remembrance of my friend, M. Thomas Morley

Thomas Weelkes (1576-1623)

Cantus (part 1 of 6)

Ayres or phantasticke spirites (William Barley press, london, 1608)

Death hath de - pri - ved me of my dear-est friend, my dear - est friend, my dear - est friend is dead and laid in grave, in grave he rests, in grave he rests un - til the world shall end, the world shall end, as end must all things have. All things must have an end that na - ture wrought, that na-ture wrought must un - to dust be brought, must un - to dust be brought, must un-to dust, must un - to dust be brought.
